

Many stout men have imaginary troubles

Stout men often have their clothes made by the slow tape-measure process, not realizing that they could save dollars in money and lots of worry and wait.

We are well prepared to fit men of all sizes and shapes with Clothcraft Clothes—the clothes that fit, because they are correctly designed—wear because they are right in quality of materials and cost less because they are tailored by scientific methods that increase efficiency.

The season's newest creations in Clothcraft are here—priced $10 to $20.

MT. VERNON FAIR A GRAND SUCCESS.

The Mt. Vernon Fair which closed last Friday was all that the Association could ask or expect and in some respects surpassed the expectations of the most optimistic supporters. The floral hall was a surprise to all, it was generally conceded that, that department would necessarily fall short as the result of the long drouth. The horses numbering sixty or more, included some of the best in Kentucky, with such noted horsemen as P. W. Ray, of Bowling Green, Edgar Doty, of Richmond, Bud and Charlie Dunn of Madison, Jesse Rogers, Knoxville, Tenn., C. T. and Silas Sandridge, of Somerset, handling Joe Gilson's horses, W. M. Combs, Shepherdsville, J. W. Lowen, of Madison, E. C. Lane, of Madison, Forest Stepp, of Lancaster, Oliver King, Jim Marcum and T. H. Finley, of Sweet Water, Tenn. Every one who visited the Mt. Vernon Fair was pleased and pronounced the horses shown to be equal to those seen at any country fair in the state. Every thing else in proportion and a genuine good fair is the universal verdict. The following are the premium awards:

Judge R. G. Williams

[From Cincinnati Times Star]

Because of his perpetual warfare against lawbreakers and his success in landing them behind the bars, Commonwealth Attorney Richard G. Williams of Kerton county has achieved the distinction of being the most feared official, so far as lawbreakers are concerned, in this part of the country. A glance at the records of the term which began October 3, last year, and ended at the close of court several weeks ago, shows that Williams secured 122 conviction and these carry nearly every crime in the catalogue from murder down to larceny. One of the most interesting of the cases was the joint murder charge against Louis Morehead and Henry Landrum, Erlanger youths who killed James Litton, a railroad cook, in order to rob him. Each of these men received a sentence to life in the penitentiary. The report of William's work includes convictions in cases where railroad companies were charged with law violations. Thru the efforts of Williams the county has become comparatively free of crime.
